

Impacts of COVID-19
WySTACK 2022-Vonberg Research
Age Group	Gender	Social Impacts Identified	Emotional Impacts Identified	Social Isolation-Difficult or No? (Y/N)	Changes in World Perception (Y/N)	Further Detail
0-10	M	Lonely; missing friends	Introverted; social anxiety	Yes	Yes	World is dangerous
10-16	M	No impact felt/reported	not the best"	Yes	Yes	Everything was the same people just had to wear masks
	F	Lonely, isolated	Seperation Anxiety	Yes	Yes	Human selfishness
	F	Missed friends	Missed friends	Yes	Yes	We should be happy with what we have
	F	No impact felt/reported	Family fights/disagreements	Yes	Yes	Need to cope "whether you like it or not"
	M	No impact felt/reported	Missed friends	Yes	Yes
	F	Lonely	none	Yes	Yes	Hard to avoid getting sick; people are selfish
	M	Blocked social life; lonely	Missed friends	Yes	Yes	Opened up travel
	F	Could not make new friends	missed friends	Yes	Yes	liked learning online because they could work at own pace
	F	Missed friends	missed friends; saw family more	Yes	Yes	See people differently-rude, lonely, depressed
16-20
(Caregivers)
20-30	F	Social Anxiety requiring medication	Dangerous/rash decisions	Yes	Yes	Deeper interest in travel and ability to go out
30-40	F	Social Isolation; emotional support	Uncertainty	Yes	Yes	Increased appreciation for social injustice
	F	Social Isolation; need for friends, female support systems	Mild Depression; Anger; Uncertainty	Yes	Yes	Increased social anxiety and withdrawal from society
40-60+	F	Anger; inability to socialize; inability to regulate emotions	Depression	Yes	Yes	Seperated young and old; increased barriers between generations
	F	Increased social isolation	Reduction in friendships; increased	Yes	Yes	Public health consideration is given before ever leaving the house
Key Findings	Social Impacts
		No impact		3
		Lonely		6
		Isolation		5
		lack of support		1
	Emotional Impacts
		Social Anxiety		2
		Seperation Anxiety		1
		Antisocialization		3
		Depression		3		