

How comfortable am I with the topic of Computer Science?

Computer Science is a special way of creating things. It can be how truck drivers communicate with each other. Most factories use computer science to communicate.

What else would I like to know about this important topic?

I would like to know how all of the codes work. How does computer science increase the technology of games. I also would like to know how it was made.

How comfortable am I with the topic of Computer Science?

Not very comfortable with it. I'm not very good at computer science.

What else would I like to know about this important topic?

Maybe just how to code/write code

How comfortable am I with the topic of Computer Science?

I not aginst computer science I think learning about its enjoyable but I don't know why we need to learn about it.

What else would I like to know about this important topic?

I would like to increase my knowledge about it.

~~I hate it~~

~~I have no knowledge~~

I have nothing to speak about nor ask about

How comfortable am I with the topic of Computer Science?

The computer sciences help us in everything

What else would I like to know about this important topic?

I think I like to know how is all this possible

How comfortable am I with the topic of Computer Science?

I believe I am well equipped with the very basics of computer science. In no way am I a pro or know everything about it, but I am not a complete beginner. It is a very new field so there must be more to learn.

What else would I like to know about this important topic?

I would like to know more complex things about it so I can understand more things surrounding the topic. I like everything to be logical and for everything to make sense, computer science makes sense to me.

How comfortable am I with the topic of Computer Science?

I know a little bit of computer science. In our days right now farmers are using computer technology on their equipment.

What else would I like to know about this important topic?

When a diesel mechanic uses the computer science to work on things like right now we really don't get honors work because of computer science.

How comfortable am I with the topic of Computer Science?

I'm not comfortable with the topic of Computer Science and how it works.

What else would I like to know about this important topic?

How people can do it very easy and simple

How comfortable am I with the topic of Computer Science?

I'm comfortable with talking about it but don't like it because I'm not a big computer fan.

What else would I like to know about this important topic?

I would like it if we was learning how to beat game and stuff but all it is is just keep and loop.

How comfortable am I with the topic of Computer Science?

I am not very comfortable with this,
I do not think I know enough about it.

What else would I like to know about this important topic?

I would like to know what's so fun about it.