

3rd grade Module 1 The Sea- These videos will be placed on their library page so the students can directly view them.

After the introductory video (whole class) <https://youtu.be/Ue35VMmRwKg> about plastic affecting sea animal, students will be asked the question , "Have you studied an environmentalist that is interested in cleaning up the ocean? Third grade studies Jacques Cousteau. Have them discuss in pairs about Jacques and use his book as a resource, The Fantastic World of Jacques Cousteau, and also " Who was Jacques Cousteau? Also view the video about his grandson and the World Ocean Day-<https://youtu.be/TlgwAk-Nj1Q> as he is continuing the conservation efforts that his grandfather started.

Next look at the website <https://theoceancleanup.com/research/>.

Have students think about how plastics affect their lives?

Use the video 10 tips to reduce your plastic. Website-10 tips to reduce your plastic use (nationalgeographic.com) Have students make a graph of what plastics they use in their homes and how can they reduce the plastic. Have students brainstorm what they can do in their lives to eliminate and reduce plastic.

Next video- How to keep Plastics out of our oceans? <https://youtu.be/HQTUWK7CM-Y>

Use the Plastics video as a illustration as to how our own plastic use can affect the oceans. How do currents affect the flow of pollution?

Are there other types of pollution that is affecting the oceans?